Academic Scholarships

CAP Corporate Scholarships are available in varying amounts to multiple cadets.

United Services Automobile Association (USAA) provides academic scholarships to three outstanding cadets for assistance in pursuing their undergraduate education.

Flight Scholarships

CAP Corporate Scholarships assists cadets in attaining a private pilot's certificate. This scholarship is for CAP flight academies or local training at an FBO.

The Order of Daedalians provides aspiring military aviators an opportunity to earn their pilot's license with this scholarship. Graduates of CAP flight academies are encouraged to apply.

The Spaatz Association provides an annual scholarship to help a cadet who has flown solo to earn a pilot's license and allows using a portion of the scholarship to defray the cost of a leadership school. For more information, go to their web site: spatzassociation.wordpress.com.

School-Specific Scholarships

Auburn University annually sets aside one scholarship for a CAP cadet to study fiber engineering, textile chemistry or textile management at Auburn. Contact Auburn for details.

Dowling College School of Aviation offers a one-year and a two-year scholarship to CAP members choosing to major in one of their aeronautical majors. Contact Dowling for details.

Norwich University offers four $5,000 scholarships for CAP members studying for a four-year degree. CAP members can join a proud military tradition. Contact Norwich for details.

Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology offers scholarships for their flight and maintenance program.

Texas A&M University Corps of Cadets is the largest uniformed student body in the nation. Scholarship recipients automatically qualify for in-state tuition. Contact Texas A&M for details.

USAF Academy Preparatory School reserves at least one slot for a CAP cadet each year. Cadets admitted to the Preparatory School are likely to enter the Academy the following year. Cadets who dream of entering the Academy should apply for this program.
